Tuesday Timetable:

Please see below for our suggested timetable of lessons for today, this timetable is designed to mirror what we would have been doing in lessons in school.

9am – 9:30am – Work out and exercise: <https://www.youtube.com/user/thebodycoach1/>

9:30am – Morning Zoom.

Lesson 1: Spelling: 9:45 – 10:15am

Complete the puzzle and practise putting your spelling words into sentences. I shall host a spelling test every Tuesday morning so you can see how well you've learned the words.

Lesson 2: Maths. 9:45am – 10:45 am

Over the next few weeks, I'd like you to learn and take part in lessons that involve solving problems with measures and money. You can be guided through these using the lessons from Oak National academy found here:

<https://www.thenational.academy/online-classroom/year-4/maths#subjects>

(Scroll down the page to find the measures and money lessons)

I have also included a workbook of measurement problems for you to tackle.

Alternatively you can continue with using khanacademy and complete the lessons set for you on here.

<https://www.khanacademy.org/>

Use the class code:

1:00pm – Afternoon Zoom check in

Music. 1:30pm – 2:30pm

This week with Mylene we're going to be learning about chords and the magic chords that are used in pop music:

When you have finished, if you are fortunate enough to have access to a piano or keyboard, try playing some of these chords.

If you don't have a piano – why not try out this virtual keyboard which you can play using your computer:

Lesson 4: 2:30 – 3:30 PSHE:

Anger can be a very powerful emotion and one that is difficult to deal with. In the story of the Ickabog Daisy loses her temper with Bert.

“It was the word ‘silly’ that did it. ‘Silly’, when the new Head Seamstress’s daughter smirked and whispered behind her hand to her friends, while pointing at Daisy’s overalls? ‘Silly’, when her father wiped away his tears in the evenings, thinking Daisy wasn’t looking? ‘Silly’, when to talk to her mother she had to visit a cold white headstone?”

Daisy drew back her hand, and smacked Bert right around the face.”

The Ickabog – Chapter 6

Today I'd like to think back to a time when you felt really angry. How did you deal with your anger? What have you learned from this? What advice would you give yourself if you get angry in the future?

If you would like to share anything with me from the day, please do so via email.
